授業の概要及び位置づけ / Course Outline and Objectives	The class will focus on improving students' basic English skills in listening, speaking and reading through listening experiences and production exercises in class and exercises and readings in English to be done as homework.
授業到達目標 / Goal	By the end of the course, students will be expected to have a firmer command of basic grammatical structures, be more adept at understanding TOEIC Test-type reading materials, and be more comfortable listening to, responding to, and producing everyday spoken English.
授業方法(学習指導法) / Method	In class, we will focus on listening and speaking skills by going through the Breakthrough 1 course book using video and extensive pair-work exercises. Work on English grammar and structure with a text preparing students for the Reading Section of the TOEIC Test will be assigned as home work. Homework assignments will be regularly checked and four quizzes over the material will be given.
授業内容 / Class outline / Con	Classes will begin with the collection and checking of the homework assignment and the class will end with a presentation and brief discussion of the materials in the homework assignment. Most of the class time will be devoted to the listening and speaking exercises contained in the Breakthrough book as well as many additional exercises to give students as much practice using English during the class time as possible.

学生へのメッセージ / Message for students	Learning grammar requires study and exposure to reading texts, so the TOEIC book and its homework will provide students with this. Speaking and listening are skills which require practice, so the class time will be devoted to exercises which will provide students with ample chances to practice useful English in a relatively controlled environment. Therefore, students should be prepared to be diligent in their homework and active in the classroom.

授業の概要及び位置づけ/Course Outline and Objectives	1. Weekly sustainable fluency practice in 1st language and English: reading, writing, mapping and speaking. 2. Impromptu speaking; role-play, review game-board and problem solving. 3. Generating research questions for research presentation; 3 research presentations, one 800 word research presentation summary and one research presentation visual map.
授業到達目標/Goal	Learners will be able to create a weekly habit of sustainable English communication practice. Learners will be able to increase fluency in both 1st language and English through reading, writing, mapping and speaking during class time and for weekly homework. Learners will be able to memorize Maslow's Hierarchy, basic color symbolism, 8 visual designs and 5 basic drum rhythms. Learners will be able to generate research questions. Learners will be able to choose 3 research focuses for 3 research presentations. Learners will be able to actively participate solo, in pairs and small groups for 2 minute - 10 minute impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, problem solving, role-play and review game-boards during weekly warm-up and review practice. Learners will be able to generate questions in English and create 3 research presentations that reflect some awareness of global issues and global trends. Based on research questions students will be able to choose keywords, symbols, pictures and designs that reflect a keen sensitivity of visual message forms.
授業方法(学習指導法)/Method	Sustainable fluency (Flow) practices are measures of learner autonomy and linked to intrinsic motivation. Instruction will include awareness raising activities that promote a growth mindset in learners. Learners are encouraged to keep a notebook for recording class learning experiences: free reading comments in 1st language (Japanese, Chinese, Korean...), free writing and in both 1st language and English, free speaking graphs, and non-linear forms such as maps, symbols, pictures. Solo activities, pair activities and group activities inform the class learner experiences. Sustainable fluency practice will be graded at Midterm (approximately class 7) and again on the Final Test day. Bonus points will be given for improvement. There is no failing grade (60% is the lowest grade) for the sustainable fluency practice. Ideas and contributions from learners will be welcomed for the impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, role-play, charade and game-board activities to increase innovation and authenticity. Quizzes will be given between days 3 - day 7. Guided written feedback from learners will be collected on day 1, day 4 and day 6. A rubric will be co-designed by class learners for presentation and visual map assessment. Students will have 5 presentation opportunities, three presentations are mandatory. One 800 word English or Japanese summary that includes the presentation questions, the presentation main points and supporting evidence is mandatory for above B grade. One visual map for one presentation is mandatory for above B grade.

授業内容/Class outline/Con	Class 1 - Class 7 will be focussed on sustainable fluency practice in reading, writing, mapping and speaking in class and for homework. Attention: Quizzes on day 3, day 5, and day 7. Feedback will be collected from learners on day 1, day 3 and day 5. Day 7 speaking fluency data will be collected. Midterm test will be held on day 8. Day 9, Day 11, Day 13 research presentation preparation and visual map design will be focussed on after warm-up. Day 10, Day 12, Day 14 and Day 15 will be research presentation days. One 800 word summary is due on same day as presentation. One Visual Map is due on same day as presentation.

学生へのメッセージ/Message for students	The instructor supports your hobby, interests and activities and encourages each learner to connect their intrinsic motivation to class activities. Learners are reminded that developing a habit of sustainable fluency activities is a process and therefore weekly attention outside of class is helpful and will over time increase familiarity and positive Flow experiences. Research presentations related to your area of study - the issues that are talked about in your field are excellent research presentation possibilities. If you do sports, love art, play music, these are excellent research presentation possibilities. Thank You for being patient with the instructor's level of Japanese.

授業の概要及び位置づけ/Course Outline and Objectives	1. Weekly sustainable fluency practice in 1st language and English: reading, writing, mapping and speaking. 2. Impromptu speaking; role-play, review game-board and problem solving. 3. Generating research questions for research presentation; 3 research presentations, one 800 word research presentation summary and one research presentation visual map.
授業到達目標/Goal	Learners will be able to create a weekly habit of sustainable English communication practice. Learners will be able to increase fluency in both 1st language and English through reading, writing, mapping and speaking during class time and for weekly homework. Learners will be able to memorize Maslow's Hierarchy, basic color symbolism, 8 visual designs and 5 basic drum rhythms. Learners will be able to generate research questions. Learners will be able to choose 3 research focuses for 3 research presentations. Learners will be able to actively participate solo, in pairs and small groups for 2 minute - 10 minute impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, problem solving, role-play and review game-boards during weekly warm-up and review practice. Learners will be able to generate questions in English and create 3 research presentations that reflect some awareness of global issues and global trends. Based on research questions students will be able to choose keywords, symbols, pictures and designs that reflect a keen sensitivity of visual message forms.
授業方法(学習指導法)/Method	Sustainable fluency (Flow) practices are measures of learner autonomy and linked to intrinsic motivation. Instruction will include awareness raising activities that promote a growth mindset in learners. Learners are encouraged to keep a notebook for recording class learning experiences: free reading comments in 1st language (Japanese, Chinese, Korean...), free writing and in both 1st language and English, free speaking graphs, and non-linear forms such as maps, symbols, pictures. Solo activities, pair activities and group activities inform the class learner experiences. Sustainable fluency practice will be graded at Midterm (approximately class 7) and again on the Final Test day. Bonus points will be given for improvement. There is no failing grade (60% is the lowest grade) for the sustainable fluency practice. Ideas and contributions from learners will be welcomed for the impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, role-play, charade and game-board activities to increase innovation and authenticity. Quizzes will be given between days 3 - day 7. Guided written feedback from learners will be collected on day 1, day 4 and day 6. A rubric will be co-designed by class learners for presentation and visual map assessment. Students will have 5 presentation opportunities, three presentations are mandatory. One 800 word English or Japanese summary that includes the presentation questions, the presentation main points and supporting evidence is mandatory for above B grade. One visual map for one presentation is mandatory for above B grade.

授業内容/Class outline/Con	Class 1 - Class 7 will be focussed on sustainable fluency practice in reading, writing, mapping and speaking in class and for homework. Attention: Quizzes on day 3, day 5, and day 7. Feedback will be collected from learners on day 1, day 3 and day 5. Day 7 speaking fluency data will be collected. Midterm test will be held on day 8. Day 9, Day 11, Day 13 research presentation preparation and visual map design will be focussed on after warm-up. Day 10, Day 12, Day 14 and Day 15 will be research presentation days. One 800 word summary is due on same day as presentation. One Visual Map is due on same day as presentation.
キーワード/Key word	color, fear, flow, fluency, love, Maslow's Hierarchy, Mind Mapping, message, music, pictures, presentation, questions, research, rhythm, symbols, Visual Mapping.

備考（URL）/Remarks(URL)	When you know that you will be absent please tell the instructor and learn details about the class activities that are planned. If you suddenly must be absent from class please get notes and find out what you missed from a classmate, including handouts and links to websites.
学生へのメッセージ/Message for students	The instructor supports your hobby, interests and activities and encourages each learner to connect their intrinsic motivation to class activities. Learners are reminded that developing a habit of sustainable fluency activities is a process and therefore weekly attention outside of class is helpful and will over time increase familiarity and positive Flow experiences. Research presentations related to your area of study - the issues that are talked about in your field are excellent research presentation possibilities. If you do sports, love art, play music, these are excellent research presentation possibilities. Thank You for being patient with the instructor's level of Japanese.

授業の概要及び位置づけ/Course Outline and Objectives	This class will focus on developing English communication skills necessary for study at a university. These skills include, but are not limited to, forming an opinion, giving reasons, taking turns and leading a discussion. In addition, other English skills such as listening, speaking, reading, writing, presentation and intercultural communication in an academic and non-academic setting will be taught and practiced. In order to successfully complete this course, students must work hard to build up their language and study skills to a point they can understand classes taught in English and communicate with people of another culture. Students who take this course are expected to attend all classes, complete many in-class and outside-class assignments and interact with the teacher and other students.

授業の概要及び位置づけ/Course Outline and Objectives	1. Weekly sustainable fluency practice in 1st language and English: reading, writing, mapping and speaking. 2. Impromptu speaking; role-play, review game-board and problem solving. 3. Generating research questions for research presentation; 3 research presentations, one 800 word research presentation summary and one research presentation visual map.
授業到達目標/Goal	Learners will be able to create a weekly habit of sustainable English communication practice. Learners will be able to increase fluency in both 1st language and English through reading, writing, mapping and speaking during class time and for weekly homework. Learners will be able to memorize Maslow's Hierarchy, basic color symbolism, 8 visual designs and 5 basic drum rhythms. Learners will be able to generate research questions. Learners will be able to choose 3 research focuses for 3 research presentations. Learners will be able to actively participate solo, in pairs and small groups for 2 minute - 10 minute impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, problem solving, role-play and review game-boards during weekly warm-up and review practice. Learners will be able to generate questions in English and create 3 research presentations that reflect some awareness of global issues and global trends. Based on research questions students will be able to choose keywords, symbols, pictures and designs that reflect a keen sensitivity of visual message forms.
授業方法(学習指導法)/Method	Sustainable fluency (Flow) practices are measures of learner autonomy and linked to intrinsic motivation. Instruction will include awareness raising activities that promote a growth mindset in learners. Learners are encouraged to keep a notebook for recording class learning experiences: free reading comments in 1st language (Japanese, Chinese, Korean...), free writing and in both 1st language and English, free speaking graphs, and non-linear forms such as maps, symbols, pictures. Solo activities, pair activities and group activities inform the class learner experiences. Sustainable fluency practice will be graded at Midterm (approximately class 7) and again on the Final Test day. Bonus points will be given for improvement. There is no failing grade (60% is the lowest grade) for the sustainable fluency practice. Ideas and contributions from learners will be welcomed for the impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, role-play, charade and game-board activities to increase innovation and authenticity. Quizzes will be given between days 3 - day 7. Guided written feedback from learners will be collected on day 1, day 4 and day 6. A rubric will be co-designed by class learners for presentation and visual map assessment. Students will have 5 presentation opportunities, three presentations are mandatory. One 800 word English or Japanese summary that includes the presentation questions, the presentation main points and supporting evidence is mandatory for above B grade. One visual map for one presentation is mandatory for above B grade.

授業内容/Class outline/Con	Class 1 - Class 7 will be focussed on sustainable fluency practice in reading, writing, mapping and speaking in class and for homework. Attention: Quizzes on day 3, day 5, and day 7. Feedback will be collected from learners on day 1, day 3 and day 5. Day 7 speaking fluency data will be collected. Midterm test will be held on day 8. Day 9, Day 11, Day 13 research presentation preparation and visual map design will be focussed on after warm-up. Day 10, Day 12, Day 14 and Day 15 will be research presentation days. One 800 word summary is due on same day as presentation. One Visual Map is due on same day as presentation.

備考(URL)/Remarks(URL)	When you know that you will be absent please tell the instructor and learn details about the class activities that are planned. If you suddenly must be absent from class please get notes and find out what you missed from a classmate, including handouts and links to websites.
学生へのメッセージ/Message for students	The instructor supports your hobby, interests and activities and encourages each learner to connect their intrinsic motivation to class activities. Learners are reminded that developing a habit of sustainable fluency activities is a process and therefore weekly attention outside of class is helpful and will over time increase familiarity and positive Flow experiences. Research presentations related to your area of study - the issues that are talked about in your field are excellent research presentation possibilities. If you do sports, love art, play music, these are excellent research presentation possibilities. Thank You for being patient with the instructor's level of Japanese.

授業の概要及び位置づけ/Course Outline and Objectives	The course focuses on developing listening and speaking skills, using topics related to our personal lives (i.e., family, friends, interests, etc.). In addition to listening and speaking practice, students do exercises on grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation.
授業到達目標/Goal	The goal of the course is to help students develop aural and oral fluency. Listening exercises involve dictation and comprehension check. Speaking exercises take up usage patterns which represent common conversation functions.
授業方法(学習指導法)/Method	The assigned textbook and its accompanying CD are the teaching materials used in this course. A total of 15 units of the textbook are taken up, with each class meeting dedicated to completing one unit. Listening practice involves dictation exercises and comprehension check of the audio presented in class. To build speaking skills, usage patterns that represent common conversation functions are taken up, such as expressing opinions, stating goals, etc.

授業の概要及び位置づけ/Course Outline and Objectives	1. Weekly sustainable fluency practice in 1st language and English: reading, writing, mapping and speaking. 2. Impromptu speaking; role-play, review game-board and problem solving. 3. Generating research questions for research presentation; 3 research presentations, one 800 word research presentation summary and one research presentation visual map.
授業到達目標/Goal	Learners will be able to create a weekly habit of sustainable English communication practice. Learners will be able to increase fluency in both 1st language and English through reading, writing, mapping and speaking during class time and for weekly homework. Learners will be able to memorize Maslow's Hierarchy, basic color symbolism, 8 visual designs and 5 basic drum rhythms. Learners will be able to generate research questions. Learners will be able to choose 3 research focuses for 3 research presentations. Learners will be able to actively participate solo, in pairs and small groups for 2 minute - 10 minute impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, problem solving, role-play and review game-boards during weekly warm-up and review practice. Learners will be able to generate questions in English and create 3 research presentations that reflect some awareness of global issues and global trends. Based on research questions students will be able to choose keywords, symbols, pictures and designs that reflect a keen sensitivity of visual message forms.
授業方法(学習指導法)/Method	Sustainable fluency (Flow) practices are measures of learner autonomy and linked to intrinsic motivation. Instruction will include awareness raising activities that promote a growth mindset in learners. Learners are encouraged to keep a notebook for recording class learning experiences: free reading comments in 1st language (Japanese, Chinese, Korean...), free writing and in both 1st language and English, free speaking graphs, and non-linear forms such as maps, symbols, pictures. Solo activities, pair activities and group activities inform the class learner experiences. Sustainable fluency practice will be graded at Midterm (approximately class 7) and again on the Final Test day. Bonus points will be given for improvement. There is no failing grade (60% is the lowest grade) for the sustainable fluency practice. Ideas and contributions from learners will be welcomed for the impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, role-play, charade and game-board activities to increase innovation and authenticity. Quizzes will be given between days 3 - day 7. Guided written feedback from learners will be collected on day 1, day 4 and day 6. A rubric will be co-designed by class learners for presentation and visual map assessment. Students will have 5 presentation opportunities, three presentations are mandatory. One 800 word English or Japanese summary that includes the presentation questions, the presentation main points and supporting evidence is mandatory for above B grade. One visual map for one presentation is mandatory for above B grade.

授業内容/Class outline/Con	Class 1 - Class 7 will be focussed on sustainable fluency practice in reading, writing, mapping and speaking in class and for homework. Attention: Quizzes on day 3, day 5, and day 7. Feedback will be collected from learners on day 1, day 3 and day 5. Day 7 speaking fluency data will be collected. Midterm test will be held on day 8. Day 9, Day 11, Day 13 research presentation preparation and visual map design will be focussed on after warm-up. Day 10, Day 12, Day 14 and Day 15 will be research presentation days. One 800 word summary is due on same day as presentation. One Visual Map is due on same day as presentation.
キーワード/Key word	color, fear, flow, fluency, love, Maslow's Hierarchy, Mind Mapping, message, music, pictures, presentation, questions, research, rhythm, symbols, Visual Mapping.
教科書・教材・参考書/Textbook, Teaching material, and Reference book	3 books for reading: Surfer, Armand's Journey and Different Worlds Internet Accessibility by cell phone, iPad or laptop. Class Handouts provided by instructor.
成績評価の方法・基準等/Evaluation	Sustainable fluency practice: Writing 10%; Speaking 10%; Mapping 10% In class Quizzes: 10% 1 800 word summary: 15% One visual Map: 15% 3 research presentations: 30%
受講要件(履修条件)/Requirements	Notebook for weekly class activity: reading comments in 1st language; free writing, speaking graphs, in class mapping practice. 5 Favorite Color pens and 3 highlight pens; color post-its Favorite ball pen
アクセシビリティ/Accessibility	In order to ensure equal educational opportunities for all students, Nagasaki University strives to remove societal barriers that may interfere with academic activities, and to provide reasonable accommodations as necessary and appropriate. 備考(URL)/Remarks(URL)	When you know that you will be absent please tell the instructor and learn details about the class activities that are planned. If you suddenly must be absent from class please get notes and find out what you missed from a classmate, including handouts and links to websites.
学生へのメッセージ/Message for students	The instructor supports your hobby, interests and activities and encourages each learner to connect their intrinsic motivation to class activities. Learners are reminded that developing a habit of sustainable fluency activities is a process and therefore weekly attention outside of class is helpful and will over time increase familiarity and positive Flow experiences. Research presentations related to your area of study - the issues that are talked about in your field are excellent research presentation possibilities. If you do sports, love art, play music, these are excellent research presentation possibilities. Thank You for being patient with the instructor's level of Japanese.

Learners will be able to actively participate solo, in pairs and small groups for 2 minute - 10 minute impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, problem solving, role-play and review game-boards during weekly warm-up and review practice. Learners will be able to generate questions in English and create 3 research presentations that reflect some awareness of global issues and global trends. Based on research questions students will be able to choose keywords, symbols, pictures and designs that reflect a keen sensitivity of visual message forms.
授業方法(学習指導法)/Method	Sustainable fluency (Flow) practices are measures of learner autonomy and linked to intrinsic motivation. Instruction will include awareness raising activities that promote a growth mindset in learners. Learners are encouraged to keep a notebook for recording class learning experiences: free reading comments in 1st language (Japanese, Chinese, Korean...), free writing and in both 1st language and English, free speaking graphs, and non-linear forms such as maps, symbols, pictures. Solo activities, pair activities and group activities inform the class learner experiences. Sustainable fluency practice will be graded at Midterm (approximately class 7) and again on the Final Test day. Bonus points will be given for improvement. There is no failing grade (60% is the lowest grade) for the sustainable fluency practice. Ideas and contributions from learners will be welcomed for the impromptu speaking, anecdotal speaking, role-play, charade and game-board activities to increase innovation and authenticity. Quizzes will be given between days 3 - day 7. Guided written feedback from learners will be collected on day 1, day 4 and day 6. A rubric will be co-designed by class learners for presentation and visual map assessment. Students will have 5 presentation opportunities, three presentations are mandatory. One 800 word English or Japanese summary that includes the presentation questions, the presentation main points and supporting evidence is mandatory for above B grade. One visual map for one presentation is mandatory for above B grade.

授業内容/Class outline/Con	Class 1 - Class 7 will be focussed on sustainable fluency practice in reading, writing, mapping and speaking in class and for homework. Attention: Quizzes on day 3, day 5, and day 7. Feedback will be collected from learners on day 1, day 3 and day 5. Day 7 speaking fluency data will be collected. Midterm test will be held on day 8. Day 9, Day 11, Day 13 research presentation preparation and visual map design will be focussed on after warm-up. Day 10, Day 12, Day 14 and Day 15 will be research presentation days. One 800 word summary is due on same day as presentation. One Visual Map is due on same day as presentation.

備考(URL)/Remarks(URL)	When you know that you will be absent please tell the instructor and learn details about the class activities that are planned. If you suddenly must be absent from class please get notes and find out what you missed from a classmate, including handouts and links to websites.
学生へのメッセージ/Message for students	The instructor supports your hobby, interests and activities and encourages each learner to connect their intrinsic motivation to class activities. Learners are reminded that developing a habit of sustainable fluency activities is a process and therefore weekly attention outside of class is helpful and will over time increase familiarity and positive Flow experiences. Research presentations related to your area of study - the issues that are talked about in your field are excellent research presentation possibilities. If you do sports, love art, play music, these are excellent research presentation possibilities. Thank You for being patient with the instructor's level of Japanese.

学生へのメッセージ / Message for students	Learning grammar requires study and exposure to reading texts, so the TOEIC book and its homework will provide students with this. Speaking and listening are skills which require practice, so the class time will be devoted to exercises which will provide students with ample chances to practice useful English in a relatively controlled environment. Therefore, students should be prepared to be diligent in their homework and active in the classroom.
